

Defense in case of George W. Fitzgerald, charged with theft of $173,000 from U. S. sub-treasury, will submit his last evidence today.

Charges of criminal carelessness have been preferred against David R. Klafter, architect who designed the Home theater, roof of which collapsed last Monday.

Auto bandits robbed jewelry store of L. Horn, 1153 N. Clark st. Threw brick through window. Knocked down Horn and son.

Breach of promise suit against Mrs. Jeannette Deere Chapman, 72, has been dismissed by Dr. Kirk Stanley of New York, who is half her age.

Ludolph E. P. Miller of Texas eloped with Miss Dorothy Regal, chum of fiancée, Miss Myrtle Pierce, 3724 Sheffield av.

Federal grand jury will investigate strike of electrical workers against Postal Telegraph Co.

Detectives last night found two satchels belonging to Mrs. Emma Kraft, who was murdered in Saratoga hotel by Handsome Jack Koettters. Also an unmailed letter to Koettters. Will all be opened this morning. Expected to furnish clues.

Claude Lawson arrested for soliciting funds to "bury" his father.

William D. Haywood, leader of Industrial Workers of World has opened quarters at downtown hotel. Wants to start general strike in Chicago.

"Seen anything of that kid of mine," Clem Harpling, 742 Blackhawk st., asked, and they took him to Ellison's undertaking rooms. He found the "kid's" body. Street car.

Frank P. Danisch, clerk of municipal court, hired and fired 6 deputies.

Judge told Fred Busch, 7334 S. Green st., that he could stop loving Margaret O'Brien, 1914 Hamlin av., but not to expect presents back. Busch brought suit to recover value of jewelry he gave her.

Charles W. Minard, discharged principal of Marquette school, who caused attention by marrying six weeks after death of his wife, is now charged with mutilating will of first wife.

Sigmund Renee, manager of Plaza theater, disappeared. Also $1,000. Police looking for him and Miss Mae Sunderland, chorus girl. Renee married.

Col. Roosevelt praises Jane Addams in speech at dinner given women delegates to Progressive National Conference by the Hull House leader.

—o—o—
Any how, that governors' meet at Richmond enables us to become acquainted with Gov. Blease of South Carolina. Blease wears a stand-up collar and white necktie and believes in lynching the white man's burden.

—o—o—
Certainly it's all right for Gov. Hodges to give some of the Kansas election spoils to women. It's almost as good as civil service reform, for coming governors will hesitate before kicking a lady out of her office.